Host a Day Dreamers Storytime!

Just follow your thoughts. Let your imagination wander. And dream.

BEFORE STARTING THE STORY: Ask your audience if they can remember any dreams they've had, and get a few children to tell you what they dreamed about. Then introduce the concept of a day dream as something you imagine while you are awake. Tell your audience that this book is all about imagining adventures with magical creatures such as unicorns and dragons.

AS YOU READ: Engage children by asking them questions such as "Who wishes they could have a day dream adventure with a unicorn?" or "What would you do if you met one of these day dream animals?"

END THE STORYTIME by asking kids to name their favorite creature, real or imaginary, and to complete the activities in this kit.

Draw Your Own Imaginary Creature

This is a drawing game played with three artists.

Grab two friends to help you draw a surprise dream animal!

Instructions: With an adult's help, cut out the box below. Have artist #1 draw the head of an imaginary dream animal, but make sure no one can see what the person is drawing. Artist #1 should fold down the top portion of the paper behind so that the head isn't showing, then pass the paper to artist #2 who will draw the dream animal's body. Artist #2 will fold the paper down so only the bottom of the sheet is showing, for artist #3 to draw the legs and feet. Unfold the paper to see what you and your friends have created!
